

John: The Sacramental Gospel – Dr. Scott Hahn

Chapters 5 – 6

Session 5: My Father is Working Still

Study Guide

- What was the Jewish “Feast of Weeks” and what did it commemorate? What is the Christian fulfillment of this feast? What connections can be made between the two installments of these feasts?
- How does Hahn relate the invalid to Adam in the Garden after he had sinned? What conclusions can be drawn from this connection?
- What about the invalid’s response speaks toward our own deeper human nature?
- What unique statement does Jesus make to the invalid? How might this relate to the man’s prior condition? How might it, more importantly, relate to his attitude?
- What is the “deeper meaning” of the Sabbath that Hahn discusses?
- How does one’s view of God affect one’s view of creation?
- What are the consequences of God being an “eternal Father” as opposed to simply being fatherly?
- What is the greater offense in Jesus’ healing on the Sabbath?
- What is the “domestic parable,” as Hahn calls it, used in John 5? What is Jesus saying there?
- How does the Holy Spirit testify to the Fatherhood of God? Why is it necessary for the Church?
- What is the link between John 5 & 6? What does it have to do with the Sabbath?

John: The Sacramental Gospel – Dr. Scott Hahn

Chapters 5 – 6

Session 5: My Father is Working Still

Study Guide

- What was the Jewish “Feast of Weeks” and what did it commemorate? What is the Christian fulfillment of this feast? What connections can be made between the two installments of these feasts?
- How does Hahn relate the invalid to Adam in the Garden after he had sinned? What conclusions can be drawn from this connection?
- What about the invalid’s response speaks toward our own deeper human nature?
- What unique statement does Jesus make to the invalid? How might this relate to the man’s prior condition? How might it, more importantly, relate to his attitude?
- What is the “deeper meaning” of the Sabbath that Hahn discusses?
- How does one’s view of God affect one’s view of creation?
- What are the consequences of God being an “eternal Father” as opposed to simply being fatherly?
- What is the greater offense in Jesus’ healing on the Sabbath?
- What is the “domestic parable,” as Hahn calls it, used in John 5? What is Jesus saying there?
- How does the Holy Spirit testify to the Fatherhood of God? Why is it necessary for the Church?
- What is the link between John 5 & 6? What does it have to do with the Sabbath?